

HEALING ROSARY FOR FAMILIES

Prayer to the Holy Family: “Jesus, Mary and Joseph, in you we contemplate the splendour of true love; to you we turn with trust. Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic churches. Holy Family of Nazareth, may families never again experience violence, rejection and division; may all who have been hurt or scandalized find ready comfort and healing. Holy Family of Nazareth, make us once more mindful of the sacredness and inviolability of the family, and its beauty in God’s plan. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Graciously hear our prayer. Amen.” (from Pope Francis’ “Prayer to the Holy Family,” December 29, 2013)

For Healing of Families: Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen

“The lord heals the brokenhearted, and binds up their wounds.”

Psalm 147:3

The Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;

on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

For fathers: Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you;
blessed are you among women,
and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners
now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

For mothers: Hail Mary...

For children: Hail Mary...

Glory be to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins; save us from the fires of hell;
lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy.

“Thank God for the grace by which you can recognize your limitations and your weakness. That is a truth which each one of us ought to acknowledge. Consider also that God needs neither our knowledge nor our talents, but desires our self-surrender, good will and readiness to do whatever He asks of us. Resort to prayer, therefore; submit and recommend everything to God, and He shall accomplish His designs even by means of a frail instrument to the everlasting glory of His Name.” (from Blessed Mary of Jesus the Good Shepherd [Frances Siedliska], Foundress of the Congregation of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth)

May it help each family unit to grow in understanding of its particular mission in society and the Church by hearing the Word of God, by prayer and by a fraternal sharing of life. May Mary, Mother of ‘fairest love,’ and Joseph, Guardian of the Redeemer, accompany us all with their constant protection.”

“There is so much suffering in families these days all over the world that it is important to pray, and it is important to forgive. People ask me what advice I have for a married couple struggling in their relationship. I always answer ‘Pray and forgive;’ and to young people who come from violent homes, ‘Pray and forgive;’ and to the single mother with no family support, ‘Pray and forgive.’ You can say, ‘My Lord, I love You. My God, I am sorry. My God, I believe in You. My God, I trust You. Help us to love one another as You love us.’” (from St. Teresa of Calcutta)

Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins; save us from the fires of hell;
lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy.

“We can try to limit suffering, to fight against it, but we cannot eliminate it. It is when we attempt to avoid suffering by withdrawing from anything that might involve hurt, when we try to spare ourselves the effort and pain of pursuing truth, love, and goodness, that we drift into a life of emptiness, in which there may be almost no pain but the dark sensation of meaninglessness and abandonment is all the greater. It is not by sidestepping or fleeing from suffering that we are healed, but rather by our capacity for accepting it, maturing through it, and finding meaning through union with Christ, who suffered with infinite love.” (from Pope Benedict XVI, Encyclical Letter “Spe Salvi,” November 30, 2007).

Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins; save us from the fires of hell;
lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy.

“Heavenly Father, You have given us a model of life in the Holy Family of Nazareth. Help us, O loving Father, to make our family another Nazareth where love, peace, and joy reign. May it be deeply contemplative, intensely Eucharistic, and vibrant with joy. Help us to stay together in joy and sorrow through family prayer. Teach us to see Jesus in the members of our family, especially in His distressing disguises. May the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus make our hearts meek and humble like his and help us to carry out our family duties in a holy way. May we love one another as God loves each one of us more and more each day, and forgive each other’s faults as You forgive our sins. Help us, O loving Father, to take whatever You give and to give whatever You take with a big smile. Immaculate Heart of Mary, cause of our joy, pray for us. Saint Joseph pray for us. Holy Guardian Angels be always with us, guide and protect us.

Amen.” (from St Teresa of Calcutta)

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, mother of mercy,
our life, our sweetness, and our hope.
To you we cry, poor banished children of Eve;
to you we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn, then, most gracious advocate,
your eyes of mercy toward us;
and after this, our exile,
show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Amen.
