

MINISTRY EXPECTATIONS

How do I become a member of the Book Club? An interest in the committee can be indicated on the Stewardship of Talent card; or you may contact the parish office or the ministry leader, directly, or just show up at the monthly meeting.

What defines an "active" member of the club? Regular, or even sporadic, attendance at the monthly book discussions.

How do I end my membership in the Book Club? You are welcome any time but to be removed from the email distribution list notify the committee leader or the parish office that you are no longer interested in being a member.

Is the attire of the member important? No, though you may want to sport festive attire at our annual Christmas gathering/book exchange.

What special talents/characteristics are desired in a member of the Book Club? A love of reading, a willingness to share ideas for good books and to participate in the discussions.

What is the time commitment? Two hours a month at our meetings and then whatever time is required to read the book-of-the-month.

What can I expect in the way of support/training for my role in the Book Club. Regular reminders about meeting times and fun, friendly discussions of good reads.

STEWARDSHIP OF TALENT

Stewardship has its beginning in baptism. Our baptism as one of Christ's disciples calls us to share our gifts — including our talents.

By giving of our talents, we can support our parish's efforts to carry out the mission Christ gave us.

Parish Mission

We, the Parish of Mary, Queen of Peace, are a faith community, following the teachings of Jesus Christ, in the tradition of the Roman Catholic Church. We gather together, welcoming in spirit, united in our diversity, committed to peace through justice, as witness to our faith. We seek to be the family of God, by our active participation in stewardship through worship, education, service, and social activities. Our lives will bear witness to our beliefs.

What We Do

The overall tone of the MQP Book Club meetings are light and the discussions are informal, blending the personal and literary in a cozy way.

Book discussions are held on the second Tuesday of each month (September through June) at 7p.m. in C130/St. Albert the Great room.

You need not be a regular member, feel free to drop in for any of the discussions. Books being read and meeting dates are posted in the bulletin.

Our December meeting is usually held in a private home where we share an appetizer and dessert potluck and have a book exchange.
